

SCENE 1.

FX: "ROCKY" THEME TUNE PLAYING IN THE BACKGROUND

VOICE OVER: A small-time guy with big-time guts, who yearns to be a hero... Just once.

ROCKY: Y'know, I bin nubbin' ear six ears anyoo bin stickinit tubby six ears an' I wanna nohowcom.

COACH: What you say, Rocky?

ROCKY: I sed, yub bun stickinit...

COACH: Jesus, you sound like you got a face full of marbles.

VOICE OVER: A has been battler with one dream left - and one last chance.

ROCKY: I figa I braked guys doze hegetzza layzeedorf, right?

COACH: Those elocution lessons I got ya. They not working out, huh.

ROCKY: Day wur king fine. Whatzamatawidyu?

VOICE OVER: His whole life was a million-to-one shot.

ROCKY: Aye nid yulp boat tenyers ago.

COACH: Listen, I got someone I want you to meet. Someone who might understand that garbled brain fart you call speech. Rocky Bilbao, meet Don Corleone.

DON CORLEONE: I bin wonton a meetchoo furlong tyme.

ROCKY: Fine alley. Sum won eye cun tork two.

VOICE OVER: A true hero goes all the way. "Rocky " meets "Godfather" in "What the Heck You saying?".

THE END.